SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1866.

MR. B. B. CHAMBERLIN, as our readers already know, is running for President Judge of the Washington and Beaver district. This district was created last year, and Mr. Chamberlin was appointed Judge by Governor Curtin. Mr. A. W. Acheson, the present Republican candidate, was his competitor for the place. The controversy became quite sharp between these two gentlemen and their respective friends. It was finally arranged that the appointment should be given to Mr. Chamberlin, with the distinct understanding that if he proved unacceptable to the people interested, he should not press for the nomination this fall.

It is manifest he is not acceptable. The fact that he failed to obtain the Republican nomination is only one of many evidences on that point. His consenting to run as an independent candidate, with Democratic support, is in violation of his engagement with the Governor, and with the friends who used their influence with the Governor in his behalf.

In saying this we do not mean to impeach the reputation for probity Mr. Chamberlin has sustained for many years. But he has allowed his feelings in this matter to obscure his judgment and bias his decision. This however, will be without result except upon himself. Mr. Acheson will be elected by the full republican majority.

THE mongrelites have suddenly realized that there is great defection in their own ranks. The great majority of old Democrats in the county promise to ignore at the polls all the renegade politicians from the Republican ranks and vote for their opponents. This is gratifying. These miserable men, who, for the bare chance of office, abandoned the principles which they held during the war, will be fitly rebuked at the ballot-box by their newly found Democratic friends. It is a conceded fact that our worthy candidate for Sheriff, Mr. S. B. Cluley, will receive nearly the solid vote of the Democratic element of the opposition. Indeed it is confidently believed that he will carry even the Third ward, since his opponent receives the credit of doing much to wipe out the boundary lines of that old stronghold of the unterrified. Every day our original calculation that this county would give between seven and ten thousand Union majority, seems more probable, as the opposition are rapidly losing ground, while the ranks of the loyal voters are being cemented together in one overpowering solid column which will crush to earth the puny politicians found upon the mongrel ticket.

TO Mr. GEORGE W. DITHRIDGE we again return our sincere thanks for his very valuable assistance in enabling us to lay before our readers a verbatim report of all the prominent speeches and remarks made during the late Convention. He is the only reliable phonographic writer in Western Pennsylvania, and our readers can appreciate how valuable his services have been to us. Pecuniary inducements need not be held out to Mr. Dithridge as he labors purely out of love for the great political cause of the Union Republican Party, and on behalf of that party we return him hearty thanks.

IN the Twenty-fourth Senatorial District, composed of Washington and Beaver counties, Mr. Samuel Bigger, the Democratic candidate, has withdrawn, and Mr. J. B. Welsh, Republican, has announded himself an independent candidate, and is to have Democratic support. Mr. Welsh has been in the Legislature, elected by the Republicans, the last two sessions. There is no probability of his running as well as a regular Democrat.

THE "ground-swell" of the Pittsburgh Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention will soon reach Andrew Johnson's ears. It will prove more terrible than the recent shock from Maine.

A MAN named Watson, the seventh victim of the Johnstown disaster, died on Tuesday.

An Immense Business.
Strange as it may seem, the largest business done in Pittsburgh in the dental line, is conducted at the establishment of Drs. Sill & Gillespie, 245 Penn street. Dr. Sill has been long known as a gentleman of the highest skill in his art. His praise is heard upon the lips of every one who knows him best. He is a thoroughly trained Dentist, of eminent attainments, and it is not strange to those knowing the ability of Dr. M. E. Gillespie, as a gentlemanly and skilful sufferer, that this should be regarded as the most popular place of Pittsburgh. It was Dr. Sill who first introduced the Nitrous Oxide or Laughing Gas in this city. He was administering this delightful agent for more than two years before any other person gave it. During the first two years of its use he never advertised it, and would not have done so now but for some of his medical friends, who advised him for the good of the community, to give publicity to so good an agent. The reasonable rates charged for all operations has emerged this worthy establishment into a business not believed by any who are not in the habit of calling there. No. 245 Penn street is the place for all seeking justice and kindness. C. R. C.

Hernia or Rupture.
It will be observed that we have published for a year past an advertisement of Dr. Geo. H. Keyser, of 140 Wood street, Pittsburgh, Pa., in reference to Trusses and other mechanical appliances for the cure and relief of hernia or rupture, besides various broken down conditions of the human body which are usually beyond the reach of medication. Dr. Keyser has given this branch of his business great attention for several years past, and we think we are justified in saying that he comprehends it thoroughly. You can get at his store Shoulder Braces for weak breasts, Elastic Stockings for varicose veins, Pile Props for the cure of Piles, and, in fact, every variety of mechanical appliance. Dr. Keyser is the inventor of a Truss for the radical cure of hernia or rupture, so perfect in its parts, and so comfortable to the wearer, as to elicit the admiration of all who may need such an appliance.

He has recently been in communication with some of the ablest and most experienced truss surgeons in the United States, and feels satisfied that all those who have been plagued or annoyed with ill-fitting and uncomfortable trusses, can be accommodated by calling at his consulting rooms, No. 140 Penn street, or at his Medicine and Truss Depot, 140 Wood street. Office hours from eight to eleven A. M., and one to four P. M.

Torbett's Hair Regenerator is the wonder of the age and has elicited the applause and challenges the admiration of all classes of the community. It keeps up a moistness without oil, soils nothing, and is beyond all question the most surprising, and wonderful invigorator for the hair yet discovered. Every bottle warranted or money to be funded. Ask for Torbett's Hair Regenerator, at Dr. Keyser's, 140 Wood street,

Gem. Dix and the Appointments—Positions in the Reorganized Army—Opinions of Applicants Nothing to do with Promotion (!)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—General Dix had an interview this morning with the President, and subsequently with Secretary McCulloch, and will return to New York by this evening's train. Nothing definite is positively known upon the subject, several of his personal friends say the probabilities are now that he will retain the position of naval officer of the port of New York.

A Times special says: Up to a late hour this evening no intelligence had been received from General Dix with reference to his acceptance or declination of the French mission. It was freely reported on the street to-day that he had accepted it, but there was no authority for the statement. Time has not been for a reply in the ordinary course of the mails since the appointment was sent. It is understood here that Gen. Dix has been qualified as naval officer of the port of New York, but that does not debar him from the acceptance of the French mission.

In response to the general anxiety among the applicants for positions in the reorganized army, nothing further can be said than that the list of field appointments, though understood to be nearly completed, is not ready for announcement. The country will be glad to learn that under the careful supervision of Secretary Stanton and General Grant, such selections are being made from the immense number of meritorious applicants as will insure the best officered army in the world. Every man will be of proven valor, efficiency and intelligence, and his appointment will be made on these grounds alone—no political views or influences having the slightest weight in the matter. The better a man's record the more certain will he be of securing a position, for the record of every man selected is rigidly scrutinized.

Mexican Affairs—An American Commissioned in the Imperial Army—Lower California Revolution Ended.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., September 28.—A letter dated Sept. 21st, giving an account of Carvajal's late operations in Sonora, is received from Mazatlan, says: Seven hundred men under the command of Colonels Grenadie and Martinez, entered the French position from the west, capturing one piece of artillery and the Imperial mezzanine. The French thus cut off from Mazatlan, made two desperate charges under Captain Delatak, who succeeded in repelling the enemy. An Imperial Battalion called Cosadors, shortly arrived, and drove off the Liberal force. Both sides exhibited the utmost bravery, and especial praise is awarded to Captain Delatak, for his obstinate defence. An American named Alonzo Redley, received a commission as Captain in the Imperial guards, in which upon the field of battle.

The hostilities in Lower California has terminated peacefully, all parties uniting in favor of Governor Pedres, who starts from here by the steamer Montijo, for United States ammunition. He will soon sail for Mazatlan, to look after American interests. The steamer Continental brought about two hundred thousand dollars in treasure from Mazatlan.

Trains Smashed Up at Spread Eagle.

PHILADELPHIA, September 28.—An accident occurred at Spread Eagle station, on the Pennsylvania railroad, fifteen miles from this city, at noon to-day. The flange of the trucks of the locomotive of the fast train going east broke, the engine was thrown from the track, and the front part of the train was smashed to pieces. The other trains were somewhat delayed but the road is now clear.

The Episcopal Convention.

NEW YORK, September 28.—In the Episcopal Convention to-day, an offer was received from a citizen of New York for fifty thousand dollars to establish two professorships, one at New York and Brooklyn. The Convention adjourned sine die this afternoon.

Mexican Affairs—Gen. Dix's Appointment—Pardon of Counterfeiters.

WASHINGTON, September 28.—Senor Romero, the Mexican Minister, received, to-day, the following official dispatches, dated the 27th:

The whole State of Sonora is in possession of our troops, including the port of Guaymas, which was evacuated by the French. This news is positive.

General Corona expects to be soon in possession of Mazatlan.

(Signed) —JAS. E. A. GOOGAL.

Senor Romero does not credit the imperial rumor of the death of General Diaz, near Oaxaca. General Diaz, one of the best Mexican officers, is, in the estimation of Senor Romero, too good a soldier to allow himself to be surprised by the enemy.

Senor Romero does not attach much credit to the reported shooting of M. Gonthalon's son, an officer in the French army in Mexico. The details of the news render it hardly possible that it is true.

The bond of General Dix as naval officer of the port of New York, was to-day filed and approved before the Commissioner of Customs, and the commission was issued to him. The General had separate interviews with the President, the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Treasury. There is an unauthenticated report that General Dix will have the office only for a short time and then accept the mission to France.

The President has directed the pardon of Peter Young, convicted at the September term —1865—of the United States Circuit Court for the Northern District of Ohio, of passing counterfeit currency, and sentenced to two years' imprisonment.

A pardon has also been offered for Benjamin F. Clarke, convicted at the April term of the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, of passing counterfeit money, and sentenced to imprisonment for one year.

The following appointments were made today: Captain James W. Forsyth, 1st District, Missouri; J. Andrew Forrest, Third District, Michigan; John R. Finn, Fourteenth District, Ohio; Walter L. Breckwith, Second District, Maryland; John Hubbard, Second District, Missouri, Assessors—W. Warren, Seventh District, Massachusetts; William F. Wells, First District, Michigan; Joseph Potter, First District, Indiana; Thomas Allen, Third District Pennsylvania; Charles Glonze, Eleventh District, Pennsylvania; Andrew Fulton, Eighth District, Ohio; Alfred Ely, Second District, New York; Alfred B. Getty, Twenty-second District, New York; J. E. Beebe, Third District, Michigan.

Speech of Prince Gortchakoff.

NEW YORK, September 28.—The following are the principal passages in the speech of Prince Gortchakoff, at the grand banquet to the American delegation at St. Petersburg, on the 8th instant:

The resolution of Congress contained an error—an original one—which can only be explained by distance, when it makes mention of any country in which it refers belongs to no nationality. He had no personal share in the decisions of the country he represents, nothing but the friendly heart that lives in its breast. There exists not a single enemy to enumeration. All classes owe to that act contributions of every kind. There are even classes on whom it imposes heavy sacrifices, the sovereign and the first to bear testimony of this to the territorial nobility. He would not dwell on the insufficiencies of navigation between the two countries. It was clear as midday as seen in one of the most interesting facts of our time, a fact which creates between two countries so distant the spontaneous and kind feeling, a natural friendship which will bear its fruit in forming traditions and tending to consolidate relations based on the spirit of the genuine principles of policy, not based on geographical proximity to the sea, ties between there, and not on parchments, as we are fond of saying in the style of the Ministry. He rejoiced in those relations. He had faith in their continuance, and in his political position all his care shall be given to consolidate the good understanding, because an effort is not necessary in any effort of sagaciousness and reciprocal attraction. Another motive impelled him to proclaim openly his sentiments of affection. It is neither a menace nor peril for any one. It is not inspired by greed or arrière pensée. The Almighty has given the United States their existence, and that interior life sacrifices. The United States are invulnerable at home, as invulnerability not due to the rampart of the ocean, but to the moral force, their concord, but founded upon the fabric of spirit and personal character of the citizens. No evil can happen to America but what she may find victories in. We have seen her figure in mourning for one of the most sad pages in the history of later times. We saw with profound grief the struggle between the North and south, but have always had faith in the final triumph of the Union, and we shall hope its permanent Constitution whilst is the aim and directs the efforts of President Johnson, whose system is inspired at once by firmness and moderation. He has all our sympathies and will straw as more closely between the two countries.

Correspondence Between John Giger, Esq. and Hon. Thaddeus Stevens—Instructions from Postmaster General.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The following correspondence appears in the Philadelphia papers to-day:

LANCASTER, Sept. 18—To Hon. Thaddeus Stevens: Sir—At the Union Rally here last night I frequently asked of me, "What effect the success of the President's policy of reconstruction would have upon our national securities." I would like to have your views upon this subject, if it would not be trespassing too much upon your time.

Yours, very respectfully,
(Signed,) JOHN GIGER.

September 21.—To John Giger, Esq.—DEAR SIR—In answer to your inquiry what effect the success of the President's views will have upon our national securities, I have to say that its effect would be very injurious. The President contends that the body of men acting as a Congress, has no constitutional power to add members or to admit any State, unless one of the excluded States. The Congress that authorized the war debt said that the internal duties of the country should be collected in the same number of representatives from the same States as the present. If it should be decided that those Congresses had no constitutional power to act, (as I have, 2-30's), and the legal tender greenbacks will have been issued without authority and will be worthless. Whether they would ever be redeemed I could not say. But if the President would consider a constitutional Congress, after the admission of the rebel representatives, then the condition of the debts of both belligerents would be considered.

Yours truly,
(Signed,) THADDEUS STEVENS.

The Postmaster General has recently issued instructions making provision for the printing of business cards on envelopes in any desired form or design, with requests to return letters, provided that not less than five hundred envelopes are ordered, and the persons wanting them furnish the cuts or plates prepared for the press, from which to have the printing done. Contractors are to execute the orders on the usual terms; the cost being about the value of the plain envelope with the addition of the amount of the required stamp.

Fenian Matters.

NEW YORK, September 27.—A Herald's Ottawa special says: The organization of Fenianism by the Fenians on the border, for another raid into Canada, is premature, and is believed to be so in Canada. A flaw has been discovered in the indictments against the Fenians captured at Fort Erie, which will probably necessitate their discharge.

Stephens' headquarters was all bustle and activity yesterday. Important negotiations are pending, which, when published, will astonish the brotherhood. A noble prisoner has been entered in the case of Mr. Roberts, the Fenian Head Centre, and his case has been dismissed.

National Express Company—Application for an Injunction.

FORTRESS MONROE, September 27.—A writ was issued to-day in the United States District Court at Norfolk, for an injunction against the Orange and Alexandria Railroad. The injunction was issued in favor of the Adams Express Company, upon the grounds of alleged violation of contract by the P. R. Company. The National Express Company some months ago were granted the privilege of transporting their freight over the road upon better terms than those made by special agreement with the Adams Express Company, and hence the application for an injunction.

Terrible Gale on the Coast of New Found land—Great Number of Shipwrecks—One Hundred and Fifty Dead Bodies Washed Up.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—There was a fearful gale of wind on Saturday last, on the eastern coast of New Foundland and a great many wrecks have been reported. A French frizate was lost at St. Pierre and several coasters wrecked. Over one hundred and fifty dead bodies were picked up at St. Pierre on Sunday, which were lost from the different vessels. No further particulars have come to hand.

From New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 28.—Gen. M. E. Zawler, late of the Union army, has been arrested at Baton Rouge on a charge of some negro, of assault and battery and bound over to the second District Court.

Tue Jackson Parish, South Louisiana, says: The skeleton found on the edge of Winn and Jackson was not that of Lieutenant Butts of the Freedmen's Bureau. It is thought that he is not dead. The police jury are making efforts to find him.

R. B. Epperson, Union Conservative, is likely to be run in the Second District of Texas for Congress without opposition.

General A. B. Norton, Union Conservative, was also nominated in the First District.

Cholera Reports.

RICHMOND, VA., September 28.—Lots of bright yellow leaf tobacco were sold at the Tobacco Exchange to-day at the unprecedented price of ten dollars per one hundred pounds.

The cholera seems on the increase again. The Board of Health report eight cases since yesterday evening at seven o'clock, several of which were fatal.

Report of Gen. Dix's Acceptance—Heavy Loss by a Kerosene Lamp Explosion.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The Post's special says: General Dix has accepted the mission to France.

A block of wooden buildings on Washington street, owned by William and Gilbert Wright, was destroyed by fire yesterday. The explosion of a kerosene lamp was the cause of the conflagration. None of the property in the buildings, which were occupied as stores and dwellings, was saved. The loss was $30,000, partially insured.

NEW YORK, September 26.—Some days since a man was arrested in Jersey City on suspicion of foul play, he having been the last person seen with a policeman named Conroy, whom he had hired to row to the Central Railroad ferry. ## CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON THIRD PAGE.)

Attention, Union Republicans!

To-day, Sept. 29th, 1866, is the last day for being assessed. All citizens entitled to a vote (except those voting on age) must be assessed. Every Union Republican is earnestly requested to see to his own assessment and that of any of his acquaintances, not yet assessed, friendly to the Union Republican cause.

Grand Mass Meeting at Washington—Immense Outpouring of the People.

Yesterday there was the most unprecedented gathering of the Republican class ever witnessed in Washington county. The day was propitious; and at an early hour all the highways and by-ways were filled with throngs on foot, on horseback, and in all manner of vehicles. At ten o'clock the procession began to move, and was two hours and a half in passing. Consequently it was much larger than either of the processions in Pittsburgh during the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention. The line, in as close column as it could comfortably form, was from seven to eight miles in length. Many of the vehicles were of prodigious proportions. One had forty horses attached to it. Several others nearly as many. The ornamentation of these vehicles was not only elaborate, but tasteful. The streets of the beautiful village were literally flooded, so that no vacant places seemed to exist. Nor was this all. A good many people, despairing of a chance to get into the procession, had turned out their teams. There were enough of these to bring the procession to nearly two miles, and to have delayed the organization of the meeting to an unreasonable hour in the afternoon. The multitude was animated by an apparent confidence and exultation that was exhilerating. Not a shadow of doubt seems to exist of swift coming victory.

General James B. Steele called the convention together by moving the Hon. George V. Lawrence as Chairman. The Vice-Presidents were Noah Sheers, Henry Swartz, Wm. Long, Wm. Dye, Peter Zeigler, Farquhar Fife, Samuel Thomas. Secretaries—Capt. B. F. Boon, Ebenezer Brownlee, John E. Black.

Governor Andrew G. Curtin, General John W. Geary, General A. H. Reeder and others spoke to a vast concourse. The Hon. Thomas M. Marshall and others spoke at another stand.

In the evening a meeting was held at the Court House, at which Mr. F. B. Penniman and others spoke. At another stand Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., and others addressed their fellow citizens.

In every respect the meeting was a success, altogether unparalleled in this portion of the State. Report of the Washington will render a good account in October.

Partial Burning of the Petrona Oil Refinery.

At about ten o'clock on Thursday morning, the Petrona Oil Refinery, situated near the Sharpsburg bridge, in Sharpsburg, was partially destroyed by fire. It is not known exactly how the fire originated, but before it could be checked it had destroyed one of the tanks of refined oil, and had extensively damaged one of the buildings of the refinery. The tank which was burned contained five hundred barrels of refined oil, which was totally destroyed. Quite a number of empty barrels were burned, and some crude oil in barrels. The refined oil burned was worth some $17,000. The building was damaged to the extent of about $1,000, principally the roof. The damage done to the oil and the loss on the barrels and crude oil amounts to about $2,000 more, making a total loss of $20,000. The loss was fully covered by insurance, chiefly, we believe, in Eastern companies. The refinery is one of the most perfectly constructed in regard to the prevention of fire, of any in the vicinity. If it had not been so, the whole establishment would have been burned. It is expected that the damaged portion will be in working condition again in about three weeks

Dress Goods.

A philosopher has said that to society we owe the duty of always dressing as well as our means will permit, so that our appearance will be rather pleasing than disagreeable or offensive to the vision. This is particularly so of the ladies who we all admit to be beautiful by nature. Yet, without the adornment of neat and economical dress they would look decidedly homely, if not positively ugly. This is the greatest calamity that could befall a woman. She can submit to poverty and all the ills that flesh is heir to, but to be considered ugly is too much for their delicate natures to withstand. If they would avert this catastrophe they should repair at once to the city establishment of Messrs. Baird & Bell, No. 21 Fifth street, where they can have the pleasure of selecting their dry goods from the largest and most variegated stock ever in this city. Merinos, calicoes, satins, linens, muslins, shawls, cloaks, laces and mantillas are there in abundance, of all styles and qualities, and prices that will compete with any house in the East,

Narrow Escape of the Allegheny Bazaar House.—Early three o'clock on Thursday morning a fire was discovered in the cellar under the butter and egg depot of the Allegheny Bazaar. It was made known in the he-dway before it was discovered, but was speedily put out by Mr. Lowry Oberlin, who worked most energetically for its extinction. Then it smouldered through several cellars, but was soon subdued. The fire was of such a character that the splendid building is now standing, for if the fire had proceeded unmolested for a few moments longer the whole Market House would inevitably have been destroyed. It is not known how the fire originated.

Criminal Court.

Court opened yesterday morning at nine o'clock, Judges Mellon and Brown on the bench.

Chas. Brown, convicted last week of robbing the tavern of Mr. Wycoff in South Pittsburgh, was arraigned on an indictment of larceny, it being charged that the accused stole a melodeon from Mr. Wycoff just previously to robbing his house of money. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

The next case taken up was also that of Chas. Brown, on an indictment of robbery, the first count charging burglary and the second larceny. It was charged that the accused, on the night of July nineteenth entered the house of Mr. Wm. Voight in the Borough of Mount Washington and stole therefrom a pocket-book containing $350 in greenbacks, certificates of oil stock to the value of $500 more and notes amounting to $100. The thief entered the house by climbing one of the posts of the porch, and getting through a second-story window. The window was that of the servant girl's sleeping room, but he passed through without awakening the girl, and found his way to the room of Mr. Voight on the same floor. The money was in the pocket of Mr. Voight's pantaloons and the garment was folded under his pillow. The robber took the amounts from their place and rifled the pockets without awakening Mr. V., and succeeded in getting out in the same way that he had entered, leaving the household at sweep. The only means by which it was known how he entered the house, was the fact of the door and window being open the next morning. Circumstances eventually led to the suspicion that Brown was the criminal, and he was arrested and taken before Justice Barker, by whom he was committed to answer the charge at Court.

The jury in the case yesterday found a verdict of guilty, and the prisoner was remanded for sentence.

The next case was that of Charles Dean, of the First ward, Allegheny, charged with assault and battery, with intent to commit a rape. It is alleged that, on the night of the 13th inst., the accused entered the house of Mr. Evan Rowland, in the First ward, Allegheny City, at midnight, gaining entrance through the basement window, and going to the sleeping room of Mrs. Rowland. There he undressed himself and then placed his hand over the mouth of Mrs. Elizabeth Rowland, and endeavored to get into the bed. Mrs. Rowland was awakened and screamed for help, when the intruder ran up stairs. The police were called, and search was made, which resulted in the discovery of Dean, apparently asleep, in a bed in an upper room. He was arrested and held for trial. The defense proposed to prove that the defendant boarded at Mr. Rowland's; that he only followed the example of all the boarders in getting through the basement window as the morning before, he was so exceedingly drunk that he might well be supposed to mistake Mrs. Rowland's room for his own; that he was asleep in bed when the officers entered, and that Mrs. Rowland, in his excitement, could not know whether it was the accused or some other man who entered her room. The case had not been concluded at the time of adjournment.

The Eagle Excursion to Philadelphia.

On Monday afternoon the Eagle Fire Company of this city will start on their long contemplated excursion to Philadelphia, where they will remain until the following Friday, as the guests of the Vigilant Company of that city. During their stay in Philadelphia they will be quartered at the American Hotel, on Chestnut street. The Eagle is the oldest fire organization in the city, and among those who were recognized as its members half a century since are men who now stand high in the councils of the State and nation. In fact the Eagle seems to be a connecting link between the past and the present, and a very beautiful link, too. In the projected excursion the Company will be represented by fifty-five members, all of whom will wear the neat and handsome uniform just purchased, consisting of brown overcoats, black pants, red shirts and black fire caps with silver fronts. They will leave this city in the steamer Ohio, and will receive their new hose carriage, just completed, on their arrival in Philadelphia. Wm. Wade White, who is serving as an active member of the Eagle, leaves for Philadelphia to-day to make any arrangements which may be necessary. Among others who will accompany the company we might mention Chief Engineer Hare, First Assistant Joseph Butler, Esq., Colonel Joe Brown, General A. L. Pearson, R. A. Colville, Esq.

The steamer and horses were shipped yesterday afternoon on the Pennsylvania railroad. A meeting of the members was held in their hall last night, at which several arrangements for the trip were made. We trust the Eagles will have a good time and return with a good impression of the hospitality of the city of Penn!

Mount Pleasant—The Birth-Place of Gen. Geary in a Blaze of Glory—An Immense Turnout and Imposing Demonstration.

Mount Pleasant—the birth-place of General Geary—was the scene, on Thursday last, of a demonstration such as has never before been seen in Westmoreland county. Delegations from all parts of the county gave earnest assurance that the people are wide awake, and the enthusiasm manifested shows us that the home of General Geary will make herself heard in October. Two triumphal arches spanned the principal street, and festooned with banners and lighted with lamps in almost every house was ornamented with wreaths, and decorated with flags in token profound joy at the coming of Geary. The walks and gave vent to their feelings in plaudits of welcome to their honored son, General Geary. The procession was a grand affair, and was over two miles in length. It was acknowledged, even by Democrats, to surpass anything of the kind ever seen in the county. An immense audience congregated on the grounds South of the village, and were addressed by General Geary, our candidate, and General Harrison, of New Hampshire, Rev. Mr. Hale, of Minnesota, and A. H. Chase, of the York Tree Democrat. This district is sure for Covode.

Seriously Injured.

On Thursday afternoon, while a salute in honor of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention was being fired on Seminary Hill, Mr. Robert Fife, who resides at No. 20 Leacock street, was ramming home a wad, when a premature explosion took place, caused by the ammunition being two small to fill the air chamber. Mr. Fife's arms were severely lacerated and his left cheek and breast badly torn and bruised. A Mr. Rosinger, who had his thumb on the vent at the time, lost his thumb, which was completely blown off. Several persons who were standing in the immediate vicinity of the cannon were blown off their feet—the man being hurled about a dozen yards, but no injury was sustained by any of them. Mr. Fife was carried home and his wounds dressed, and Mr. Rosinger taken to a drug store, where he was kindly cared for. Mr. Fife's injuries are seriously injured, will survive, but his face will be badly disfigured for life. It is a fortunate and wonderful circumstance that none of Mr. Fife's homes were broken.

The Bell Ringers.

The far famed Spaulding Brothers, Swiss Bell Ringers, open for a brief concert season at Masonic Hall, on Monday evening. For has immortalized the sweet Rusic rhyme and jingling melody of the bell, and all true lovers of natural music will agree with him in pronouncing it the most charming music he ever listened to. It is the only genuine Swiss Coldition, but what would he say if he heard the Spaulding Brothers and their corps of artistes play the most difficult and bewitching airs of the day. Between the Washington will render a good account in October.

Burning of the Petrona Oil Refinery.

At about ten o'clock on Thursday morning, the Petrona Oil Refinery, situated near the Sharpsburg bridge, in Sharpsburg, was partially destroyed by fire. It is not known exactly how the fire originated, but before it could be checked it had destroyed one of the tanks of refined oil, and had extensively damaged one of the buildings of the refinery. The tank which was burned contained five hundred barrels of refined oil, which was totally destroyed. Quite a number of empty barrels were burned, and some crude oil in barrels. The refined oil burned was worth some $17,000. The building was damaged to the extent of about $1,000, principally the roof. The damage done to the oil and the loss on the barrels and crude oil amounts to about $2,000 more, making a total loss of $20,000. The loss was fully covered by insurance, chiefly, we believe, in Eastern companies. The refinery is one of the most perfectly constructed in regard to the prevention of fire, of any in the vicinity. If it had not been so, the whole establishment would have been burned. It is expected that the damaged portion will be in working condition again in about three weeks

The Cleveland Robber in Durance—A Large Reward.

Chief of Police Hague received a telegraphic dispatch from a detective in Cleveland yesterday, requesting him to see that Tom King, alias Thomas Spencer, alias S. K. Shotwell—now in jail on a charge of counterfeiting—did not escape, as reliable evidence had been obtained that he was the robber who had stolen the diamonds from Mrs. Grant, in this city last winter. If he prove to be the veritable robber—and we have no doubt he will—those instrumental in capturing him will realize the snug sum of five thousand dollars, which reward has been offered for his arrest. From the fact that King manufactured on Squirrel Hill, within a few miles of this city, spurious currency to the amount of twenty thousand dollars, we must say that the community have just cause to rejoice at his capture and the brilliant prospect of a long term before him in the Western Penitentiary.

Called Her Names.

Margaret Murray appeared before Alderman Taylor yesterday, and instituted legal proceedings against Godfrey Miller, for surety of the peace. Margaret acknowledged that she was using her tongue in vilifying the wife of Miller, whom she denominated as a lying, saucy, impudent thing. Whether it was to the adjectives governing the noun thing, or to the thing itself she objected, we have no means of judging, but this we do know that either one or the other caused her a great deal of annoyance, and she was compelled, out of a sense of duty she owes to society, to bring suit against her traducer through her masculine nurse half-Godfrey. After a hearing the case was dismissed, the evidence of Margaret failing to prove the essential point, viz.: that Mrs. Miller was afraid of Margaret. The costs were divided between the parties. Mrs. Miller doubtless wished to be called only pet names.

Second Ward Boys in Rigs.

There was a meeting of the Boys in Blue held last night at Wilkins Hall, W. B. Cook in the chair, and J. B. McKee, Secretary.

On motion it was

Resolved, That the Club participate in the procession of the County and Boys in Blue Clubs on the 29th inst., Saturday evening.

After the transaction of some further business the Club adjourned to meet at the Second ward school house this evening, at seven o'clock. All of the members are requested to turn out.

A NATION'S WRATH.

There is nothing among created things more sublimely terrible than the wrath of a great people, and never was this wrath more strongly aroused than it is at this moment in the United States. It was fearfully excited when the guns from rebel batteries first opened upon the flag or the nation; and it was maintained in full force through four years of desperate war.

But that audacious attempt upon the life of the nation had something in it that redeemed it from utter loathing and abhorrence. The men who did that thing put themselves in the attitude of open and avowed enemies. They did not pretend to be conserving the Union of the States and the liberties of the people, while laboring to destroy both. But when a man in whom this people trusted basely betrayed both them and the principles upon which they elected him, and used the great power and patronage with which the Constitution invested him as the national executive against the men whose valor saved the nation, and whose votes lifted him to the power—when this man has done all that he could do to restore their rebel enemies to honor, influence and power, while he and they conjointly persecute, even to death, the men who stood by the Union in the darkest hour of the conflict, their indignation is unmitigated; and here's this tremendous ground-swell, hence these great conventions.

But the wrath of a people so enlightened, so imbued with Christian principles, so confiding in each other, and so conscious of their strength as the American people are, is calm, dignified and well ordered. There is in it nothing barbarous, cruel, lawless or bloodthirsty—nothing like the fiendish spirit which covered the city names of Memphis and New Orleans with a horrid infamy. Calmly they await the moment when they can take up the freeman's most effective weapon, the ballot, and with it dash in pieces all the plots and machinations of traitors, and put a final end to the dictatorship of ANDREW JOHNSON, leaving him to fill out his constitutional term of office—provided he behaves himself—without a party, without the power to do mischief, and without either moral or political influence. That done, things will move on in peace and order; but woe to him and to his rebel allies if they attempt again to resist their will. There is a fearful power behind the ballot, and well the rebels know it.

COPPERHEADS UNDILUTED.

The following is copied from the Bedford Gazette, the democratic organ of Bedford county, Pa., a paper devoted to the interests and policy of JOHNSON and CLYMER. The democracy of that county are a rough and rugged race, and they take their politics, as they take their whisky—strong, and, judging from the following introductory remarks of the editor, they like them so.

A meeting of the true and tried Democracy was held in the Court House, in Bedford, on the evening of Saturday, September 22d, 1866. That firm and reliable Democrat, Col. Jos. W. Tate, was unanimously chosen President of the meeting. After several able and eloquent addresses had been delivered, on motion of Hon. Benj. F. Myers, editor of the Bedford Gazette, and present Democratic candidate for Senator in this District, Col. Tate was called upon to address the meeting. The Colonel responded in his usual able and eloquent manner. After discussing the issues of the day the Colonel eloquently exclaimed:

"I believe that Providence had a hand in the removal of Abraham Lincoln. I believe that the name of J. Wilkes Booth will live; that he laid down his life for his country, like Winklereid. Switzerland had her Winklereid and her Wm. Tell; Scotland had her Robert Bruce, and AMERICA HER BOOTH. The time is coming when there will be a monument erected to Booth, HIGHER THAN THE SPIRE OF LINCOLN, who sleeps beneath the sod of Illinois."

After seeing what we have seen during the past five years—after seeing these same men, with HIESTER CLYMER at their head, sympathising with traitor enemies in war, and fraternizing with those same traitors now that the war is over—we need not be at all surprised to hear them glorifying the assassin BOOTH as one of their martyr heroes. It is not because the canonization of JOHN WILKES BOOTH is a deeper or darker infamy than their treasonable conduct during the war, but because it is a new phase, a further and more audacious development, of that infamy, that we are at first startled at it.

The erection of that promised monument to the martyr BOOTH, we suppose, is to be a part of "my policy" when it is carried out. When treason is made honorable and loyalty odious, why should not the great assassin have a cloud-piercing monument? When that is done, and not till then, will the party now struggling for the ascendancy be completely triumphant.

A LIGHT SHINING IN A DARK PLACE.

CAPTAIN A. W. TOURGEE, editor of the North Carolina Unionist, and one of the Loyal Southerners who recently met in Convention in Philadelphia, is now in the city, soliciting subscriptions for that paper; for in the present condition of things in that State it is impossible to sustain a truly loyal journal without aid from the North. Captain TOURGEE is a thoroughly loyal man, of ardent spirit, superior talents and strong convictions. He fought during the war in the army of the Union, and suffered for months, as did thousands of others, in rebel prisons. He now proposes to fight out the battle with treason and rebellion "on this line," and a little material aid in the manner indicated will enable him to do good service in the cause.

The Unionist is published in Greensboro, a centre of influence only second to Raleigh, and is one of three papers in the State advocating the same principles, and so greatly is its influence as an organ of public opinion feared, that a large sum was offered by the supporters of the President's policy for it, but declined.

There are in North Carolina probably more elements of moral and political regeneration than in any other rebel State; and it only requires intelligence and a wholesome public sentiment to have free course among the people to bring about, at an early day, that much to be desired consummation. We therefore bespeak for Capt. TOURGEE a liberal response on the part of our citizens.

"AS OTHERS SEE US."

Most people like to hear or read what others think and say of them, so we copy the following from the special correspondence of the Chicago Journal:

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 29—9 A. M.

The scenes and incidents about the city are numerous and exciting. The political complexion of Pittsburgh may hereafter be well known. When Mr. Lincoln saw the returns from this (Allegheny) county, he remarked: "What! Allegheny county give ten thousand majority? Impossible! That shall hereafter be known as a State!" The returns showed, I believe, that this county gave him a larger majority than any other county in the Union; hence is explained why every street, from the centre to circumference of the city, and every house, with an occasional Copperhead exception, from roof to doorsill, is gaily decorated with bunting, emblems and mottoes. The display at Philadelphia during the Southern Loyalists' Convention was grand, but not equal, in universal extent, to this in Pittsburgh. I have never seen anything approximating it except in Cincinnati during the early part of the war. Emphatically have the loyal thousands of Pittsburgh welcomed the boys in blue. Latch-strings are out everywhere, and for once the city has become one vast public reception committee.

—SIR MORTON PETO has again come to grief. At a meeting of the shareholders and bondholders of the London, Chatham and Dover Railroad, it was stated that there had been an over-issue of the Company's bonds to the extent of £128,000, equal to nearly one-third of the whole sum authorized. The Directors all declare that they knew nothing about it, and called on their contractor, Sir M. Peto, to explain. Sir M. Peto acknowledged that he had been instrumental in thus disposing of documents which were in their nature really as fraudulent as forgery; but said that if he had not done so he and the Company must have both stopped together—which both have done since. Of course the affair excited great dissatisfaction, especially among the holders of the worthless bonds.

—A young lady riding in a car on the Susquehanna railroad, was suddenly assaulted very violently the other day, by an old lady in the seat behind her, who tore the "waterfall" from the young lady's head, threw it on the floor, and commenced stamping on it. The young lady was at first disposed to resent this treatment, but it was soon explained to her that her waterfall was on fire when the old lady seized it. She was sitting by the open window, and a spark from the locomotive had lighted in her back hair, and would soon have lighted it up had not assistance been thus promptly rendered.

COSMETICS.—It is wonderful the number of articles sold, for the purpose of removing tan, freckles, and other discolorations from the face. The most of them are worthless, and some positively injurious. Among the many of the numerous preparations there is one we can recommend; it has no unpronounceable foreign name, but time has shown that the only reliable and safe remedy for the cure of discolorations on the face, called Freckles and Moth Patches, is PERRY'S MOTH AND FRECKLE LOTION. Sold by all Druggists.—N. Y. Sunday Mercury.

TAKE TIME BY THE FORELOCK.—The miasma which generates epidemic fevers is now rising in clouds under the blazing beams of the dog day sun. Every living body, as well as refuse animal and vegetable matter, emits unwholesome vapors, and in crowded cities and the dense assemblages which business and pleasure call together the elements of disease are evolved. The pressure upon every vital organ is naturally great, as in the second as a third months of summer, and common sense teaches us that these organs require to be reinforced to meet it.

We hold our lives, so to speak, on a BREATHING LEASE and talk in the season when the process of delapidation is most rapid and repairs are most required. Therefore BUILD UP, TROP AND SUSTAIN THE POWERS OF NATURE with that mighty vegetable renovator, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. He who takes it may be said to clothe himself in sanitary mail, against which epidemic disease will hurl its poisoned shafts in vain. This is no gratuitous assertion, but a great MEDICAL FACT, attested by twelve years' experience in every climate of the habitable globe. Extremes of temperature always disturb the functions of the stomach, the bowels the liver and the skin. It is through these that the most dangerous maladies assail us. None them in advance with HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, and defy heat and malaria. se21

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST PAGE.)

Incidents of the Procession.

On one of the wagons was an individual dressed to represent a Yankee, and in addition to his business of grinding up the ground most melodicious music from his hog. We took it to be a burlesque on a certain style introduced of selling certain articles from a carriage, and at the same time regaling the crowd with music from a hand organ.

Perched upon a transparency was a coon in a most uncomfortable position, in fact we imagined his coonship was nearly choked to death. There were also two other coons in the procession. On another was an opossum, who appeared to take things more philosophically. In fact he appeared to enjoy himself hugely. There was no possuming about him.

The war eagle "Old Abe," which followed the fortunes of the 8th Wisconsin through the war, was elevated on a perch over one of the carriages. He did not appear to think there was anything wrong in the demonstration, but on the contrary amused himself by looking curiously at everything is he passed.

A sparrow hawk was like "Old Abe," elevated on a perch, but he was rather less at ease than the lordly eagle. He created considerable comment, some saying he was one thing, and some another, but to those in doubt, we give the assurance that he was nothing but a sparrow hawk.

We give the following recapitulation of the composition of the procession. There were one hundred and twenty-eight mounted officers; ninety-one cavalry; four hundred and fifty-three horsemen; nine hundred and fifty-eight wagons; nine hearses; seventy-five carriages; two hundred and nine wagons; twenty Indians; eight brass bands; thirteen drum corps; sixteen hundred and thirty horses; five men disguised as women; two as Yankees; one hundred and eighty-one with their faces smutted so as to resemble colored people; two doll babies; one eagle; one hawk; three coons; one opossum; one Newfoundland dog; thirteen genuine colored people, and about fifteen thousand persons, including officers and private citizens. In addition to this, both sides of the street the entire length of the procession, reaching fully five miles, was a dense crowd of people. The wire suspension bridge, Federal and Ohio streets, to the Wigwam, were also crowded. At the Wigwam it was variously estimated that there were from fifteen to twenty thousand people assembled. The stands were occupied by speakers, Gen. Seigel speaking three times during the course of the afternoon.

A beautiful arch, in three divisions, is erected at the corner of Ohio and Federal streets, Allegheny, and another at the corner of Pride street, and Pennsylvania Avenue.

On one of the hose reels sat two old ladies nursing babies, which from the immense amount of flutter apparent, appeared to be suffering from violent attacks of colic, or cholera infantum. The parents, papa appeared to be in Pas great a flutter as the old ladies themselves, and exerted himself to the utmost with a huge palm leaf fan.

Jeff. Davis' hack was an amusing caricature, and created a great deal of merriment.

The three wagons containing the little girls who represented the States, were got up with a great deal of taste, and the children attracted much attention as they passed by singing patriotic songs.

Under an immense awning near the wigwam Mr. Locke, of Maine, who is a poet, composer and musician, entertained a large crowd by singing songs of his own composition, and then calling upon his auditors to join in the chorus. He would then sell them the songs for a trifle, and we opine that to-day their are but few houses in this neighborhood but what has copies of Mr. Locke's productions.

The strength of the wire bridge was most thoroughly put to the test during the day. At one time there was not one foot of it but was completely by wagons, fourteen of footmen. The weight that was upon it would have crushed almost any other bridge on the continent.

The decorations of the buildings were upon the most extensive scale. There was scarcely a building but from its windows were flung flags, Chinese lanterns, transparencies, mottoes, or devices to show that the hearts of the inmates were all right, and sound to the core. Handkerchiefs waved, cheers were given, and every possible means of showing the popular delight was indulged in. There is one death that we can indulge to we hope without being told that we are fond of flattery, and that is, that on most numerous of soldiery, who passed us with glowing eyes, that they were happy that the opportunity had been offered them of re-visiting Pittsburgh; that they remembered the feelings of gratitude this reception fired that had met with from the Subsistence Committee when they were obliged to pass through the city going from one point to another during the war, and that they had heard hundreds of their comrades express a desire to see the grim city of smoke once more before they should die. Our reward is in the hearts of the soldiers.

Taking His Time.

On Thursday afternoon, while the grand procession was passing along Ohio street, Allegheny, the jewelry store of Mr. Mohler, on Federal street, a few doors above the Diamond, was entered by a thief, and four valuable watches stolen. The proprietor had closed the closed the store and had gone to see the procession. The thief effected an entrance in the rear of the building, and selected from the stock two valuable gold watches, worth $150 each, and two American silver watches, valued at $15 each. Besides these a heavy silver watch case was tak-n. There is not the slighest clue to identify the thief, and it is probable some time will elapse before he is discovered and brought to justice.

Another Counterfeit.

Our citizens have to be perpetually on their guard. A well executed counterfeit $100 National Bank bill is now in circulation. They are an excellent imitation, and likely to deceive. The New York paper that gives notice to this counterfeit says: In length and breadth they are smaller than the genuine notes, and can be detected that way. Only a few weeks ago this mode of detecting the spurious character of a bill was pointed out, and we then had occasion to call on a bank-note printer, of whom we learned that the size of the bill was no evidence of its genuiness or otherwise, as some paper shrank more than others, and not always in the same direction. Sometimes the shrinkage is in the length and sometimes in the breadth.

Doings of a Thirsty Man.

On Thursday afternoon, during the progress of the grand demonstration, a man named Charles Snyder, entered Young's saloon on the West side of the Allegheny Diamond and demanded a drink. He must have been exceedingly thirsty, for he attached such importance to the drink he desired, that he was willing to wade knee deep in the mud to get it, as he protest when it was refused him. He immediately attacked the proprietor and beat him severely, inflicting quite a number of severe injuries. He also, in his excessive thirst, carried his operations so far as to smash the windows of the saloon and demolish a considerable portion of the glass ware by him. He was eventually arrested and held to bail for a hearing on Tuesday morning next.

Outrageous Assault.

On Sunday evening, as Mr. Henry Fry, of Boyerstown, was putting away his horse, having just returned from a ride, he was attacked by two roughians at the stable door. He was severely kicked, and stabbed at with a knife, which, however, only passed through his clothing, and did not enter his body. He succeeded with much difficulty in getting away and into his house, when, rushing up stairs, he procured his gun, and first upon the assailants from the window. Mr. Fry was entirely alone, the rest of the family being absent. The murderers prowled around the house until after midnight. The object of the assault is unknown, and nothing was missed in the morning.

Will He Be Hung?

Monday, October 1st, is the day set by Gov. Curtin for the execution of Richard Thairwell, in Fayette county, for the murder of James Houseman. The Sheriff is erecting the scaffold and making the necessary preparations for the execution. It is entirely uncertain, however, whether the execution will take place or not. A strong effort has been made to procure a reprieve. A petition was forwarded to the Governor last Monday containing nearly four hundred names. We are informed that the prevailing impression in the neighborhood is that he will not be executed at all.

Mortuary Report.—Dr. G. L. McCook, physician to the Board of Health, reports the number of deaths during the week ending Sept. 24, at twenty-three—ten adults and thirteen children. The causes of death were as follows: Suicide, 1; Asiatic cholera, 3; dysentery, 1; drowned, 1; general debility, 1; tubercular consumption, 1; over dose morphine, 1; consumption, 1; cholera morbus, 1; cholera infantum, 1; hydrocephalus, 1; whooping cough, 1; stillbirth, 4; unknown, 1; scrofula, 1; croup, 1; pneumonia, 1; spasms, 1.

Larceny.—Andrew Monahan, appeared before Alderman Kaylor, yesterday, and made oath against Stephen Johns, for the larceny of a money belt containing some twenty-five dollars in currency, from the chamber of the deponent, in the boarding house of Mrs. Laughlin, in the Mason ward. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

Fatal Accident.—A horrible accident occurred at the quarry of George White, about a mile and a half below Morristown, on Thursday morning, resulting in the instant death of Michael Lloyd, of Steubenville. Mr. Lloyd was preparing a blast when the powder became ignited by a spark, setting off the blast, and blowing him sixty feet in the air.

The Successor of Bishop Young.—The position left vacant by the demise of Bishop Young, of the Erie Diocese, will probably be filled by Vicar General Father Coady, of Oil City, until a successor is named by the Convention of Bishops to be held at Baltimore, October 3d, and ratified by the Pope.

Run Over.—A little lad named Christian Starr, was run over by a buggy on Wylie street during the parade on Thursday, and so severely injured that his recovery is considered doubtful. He was taken to the residence on Colwell street where Dr Brown dressed his injuries.

Shot Among the Pumpkins.—A farmer of Cumra township, Bedford county, while ploughing a few days ago in his farm, the corner day, fell a victim of his own hands, by the discharge of a gun, and ages. He nearly severed his head from the body of existence.

Constables.—Constables are multiplied her policemen. We question the wisdom of dressing them in uniform, as it gives rogues the good an opportunity of watching them.

Will He Be Hung?

Monday, October 1st, is the day set by Gov. Curtin for the execution of Richard Thairwell, in Fayette county, for the murder of James Houseman. The Sheriff is erecting the scaffold and making the necessary preparations for the execution. It is entirely uncertain, however, whether the execution will take place or not. A strong effort has been made to procure a reprieve. A petition was forwarded to the Governor last Monday containing nearly four hundred names. We are informed that the prevailing impression in the neighborhood is that he will not be executed at all.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY, September 28, 1865.

The United States Treasurer, is paying out the interest on $21,500,000 clearing-house certificates, but as a general rule the New York banks are not drawing the money, preferring to let it remain in the Sub-Treasury without interest, and employ the certificates rather than make their clearances with legal-tenders. By the operation of payment of these certificates the banks lose the interest on $45,000,000 at 4 per cent, and $45,000,000 of currency is withdrawn from circulation and locked up as the basis of clearing-house movements. Speculators for an advance, says the Tribune, looked for higher prices under the payment of the short loan by the Treasury, but it had no such effect. At the close of August above $60,000,000 of short debt was paid off, but it has not put prices up enough to earn interest and commissions on the stock exchange, as the following will show:

| | Aug. 24. | Sept. 25. | Variation. |
|---|---|---|---|
| 5-20s of 1865..... | 108½ | 108⅝ | ⅛ advance |
| 7 30s..... | 106 | 106 | |
| Erie Railway..... | 74¾ | 75¼ | 1 advance. |
| Reading..... | 128⅝ | 129¾ | 1 advance. |
| Michigan Central.. | 118¾ | 118½ | ¼ decline. |
| Illinois Central... | 123¾ | 121½ | 2¼ decline. |

—In view of the scarcity of small United States notes a proposition has been made to the Secretary of the Treasury to retire a good portion of the $50 and $100 notes, and substitute those of the denomination of 1s, 2s, 5s, 10s and 20s. The subject is held under abeyance, with doubts of a favorable issue. It is not probable that Mr. McCulloch will listen to these persuasive attempts, for as small notes have more inflating influence on prices than large ones, the issue of the latter will tend to neutralize the contraction which is making in the volume of the currency. Moreover, the inconvenience will soon remedy itself if let alone, and the equilibrium will, by patience, soon be restored. A scarcity of notes in the present redundant state of the currency, is a favorable rather than a bad sign. It is the interest of the masses of our people, who would suffer from higher prices that the issue of small notes in place of large ones from the Treasury should not be permitted.

—One half of the clearing house certificates ceased to bear interest on Tuesday last, and on the 25th of October the balance will pass from the accounts of the Treasury Department. This operation has not had the effect which many predicted, of sending up prices at the stock board. The $45,000,000 of indebtedness has for some time been available to the public in the form of loanable deposits held by national banks. To pay the clearing-house certificates in the Atlantic cities, the Treasury has been obliged to call in its deposits held among national banks, a process which does not make money easier. After the payment the money will not be loanable capital to the banks. They will be obliged to lock it up again as security for a new issue of certificates to be used at the clearing-house. By the operation of payment the banks lose the interest on $45,000,000 at present, and the community losses the use of $45,000,000 of currency withdrawn from circulation and locked up as the basis of clearing house movements. It is a contraction of currency and not an addition.

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, Sept. 28, 1865. }

CATTLE.

The receipts of Cattle were large during the past week, fully up the usual standard in point of numbers, but somewhat below the usual average in regard to quality. The market was a pretty hard one, both buyers and sellers complaining bitterly, and the transactions in the aggregate were comparatively light, and as compared with last week, prices are lower. Last week several droves of good cattle changed hands at from 6 to 7 cts, while this week, so far as we could learn, there was but a single sale at 8 cts, and that only a car load. Stock cattle continue in good supply and very dull, and in order to effect sales, holders are obliged to accept whatever buyers feel disposed to offer. There were some good cattle on sale this week, but as the owners were unable to obtain what they considered a fair price, they shipped off further east, in hopes of finding a more active market and better prices. The attendance of buyers was not very large, and those who were here refused to buy unless at a material reduction.

SHEEP.

The market for Sheep was rather better this week, owning to a falling off in the arrivals, and best sheep, that is the corn fed Illinois, were of a much better quality. Prices, as compared with last week, are higher, and we now quote at 3 to 5½ per lb gross, for fair to prime fat mutton sheep.

SWINE.

The market for Hogs has been unusually active this week, transactions being larger than for some weeks past, and while the demand has been fully up to the supply, prices, as compared with last week, have undergone no quotable change, ranging from 10 to 11¾, the outside figure only for prime heavy averages. To-day, however, the market was a little dull in consequence of the advices from Philadelphia to the east, and buyers generally were asking for concessions, but as yet no decline has really taken place.

Albany Cattle Market.

ALBANY, September 28.—Cattle are low to this week; the supply—8,300 head—being liberal, and the demand not too sharp, as it was last week. The decline is equal to 50@75c per hundred, live weight, on the best, and 50@100c on the other grades. Yesterday the trade was nominal dull, but to-day there was considerable activity, and at the close comparatively few drove remained unsold. The receipts were to-day 1 Inferior, 58@5¾ common, 6@6¼ fair to good, 7¼@7¾ extra, 8@8¼ fancy. Lower continue scarce. Sheep are in better request at 5@6c. Receipts, 1,800 Hogs firm at 10@10¼c.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, September 28, 1865. }

The produce markets, though not unusually active, may be termed firm, and as stocks of all kinds are pretty well reduced, prices are generally well sustained.

GRAIN—Wheat is in demand, and none in market; No. 1 Spring may be quoted at $2.45@$2.50. Oats firm, with regular sales from store at 45 to 46. Barley is in demand, and there is little or none offering. Sales of 2000 bushels Sheiled Corn at 85. Rye is quoted at 95 to $1.

FLOUR—Is very firm, and the market continues somewhat excited, though prices are not quotably higher. We can report regular sales from store at $12 to 12½ for Spring Wheat, and $13 to $13½ for Winter Wheat. Rye Flour is selling at $6¾ to $6¾, and Cornmeal at $4.75.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is a little dull but unchanged; sales at 17¾ to 17½ for shoulders; 19 to 19¾ for Ribbed sides, and 20 to 20 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is dull and drooping; may be quoted nominally at 20 to 20½. Mess Pork is held pretty firmly at $34½.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in good demand here at 2¾, notwithstanding it has declined in the east. Timothy Seed is in good supply and very dull; small sales at $3¾. No movement in Clover.

BUTTER—Is in good demand and prime Roll sells readily at 33 to 35. Packed is quiet but firm.

CHEESE—Is firm and higher, and we now quote at 17 to 18 for Western Reserve, 18½ to 19 for Hamburg; and 21 to 22 for Goshen.

EGGS—Are in good demand and fresh packed sell on arrival at 25 to 26.

OIL—Lard Oil is dull and lower, No. 1 being quoted at $1.65—standard Cincinnati brands held at $1.68 to $1.70.

APPLES—Continue quiet and unchanged; regular sales from store at $2 to $3 per bbl—nobody at $4 to $5.

SWEET POTATOES—Quoted at $1¼.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }

CRUDE—As the great majority of our refiners appear to have about all the Crude they desire at present, the demand is exceedingly light, and the market is dull and weak, with a drooping tendency, though, as yet, prices are unchanged at 14, bbls returned, and in bulk, and 19, packages included. Sales of 600 bbls at 14, and 60 bbls "Smith's Ferry" at 13. It may seem a little strange that while the market is dull and weak, both here and in the east, at Oil City, holders have advanced the price to $5, and stranger than all, we presume, there are parties there willing to pay the figure, with the standing threat in no margin to ship to any point. The arrivals continue fair, and the river is in excellent navigable condition.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil is somewhat firmer in the east, and, if anything, prices are a shade better. We can report sales of 150 bbls—in three lots of 500 each—for October delivery in Philadelphia, at 42½; and 50 for November, at 43½, free on board cars here. Quotations may be fairly given at 35½ to 35¾ free on board cars here, and 42 to 42½, delivered in Philadelphia, and these may be considered as the extremes of the market. For free oil, there is little or no demand, and prices are entirely nominal.

—The half of the clearing house certificates ceased to bear interest on Tuesday last, and on the 25th of October the balance will pass from the accounts of the Treasury Department. This operation has not had the effect which many predicted, of sending up prices at the stock board. The $45,000,000 of indebtedness has for some time been available to the public in the form of loanable deposits held by national banks. To pay the clearing-house certificates in the Atlantic cities, the Treasury has been obliged to call in its deposits held among national banks, a process which does not make money easier. After the payment the money will not be loanable capital to the banks. They will be obliged to lock it up again as security for a new issue of certificates to be used at the clearing-house. By the operation of payment the banks lose the interest on $45,000,000 at present, and the community losses the use of $45,000,000 of currency withdrawn from circulation and locked up as the basis of clearing house movements. It is a contraction of currency and not an addition.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, Sept. 28, 1865. }

The transactions in metal were comparatively light this week, which was owing to the very reduced stocks, as well as the partial suspension of business, in consequence of the Convention, and not to any falling off in the demand. The market continues firm, with a demand somewhat in excess of the supply, and especially is this the case in regard to desirable irons; while, so far as prices are concerned, there has been no quotable change, as compared with last week. The following is a partial report of the sales:

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—There is no change to report in the money market, which continues easy at 4 per cent for call loans, with exceptional transactions at 3@5 per cent. The gold market is quiet but strong. The Foreign Exchange market since noon has been dull under the pressure of bills in second hands. The market closed on the basis of 108@108¼ for prime bankers' sixty days sterling bills with very little doing. Government bonds were active and strong throughout the list. The following were the closing prices: 5-20 Coupons, 1865, 106⅞@107; 10-40 Coupons, 99@99¼; 7-30s, 106@106¼.

The stock market in the afternoon was active, and prices generally were higher. At the close the most marked advance was on New York Central, which sold with large transactions, closing at 114½@114¾. Erie was strong at 79¾. The heavy decline of the past week has brought in a number of buyers, many of whom have sold since, thus giving the market the assistance of a short interest to help speculation and the upward turn hereafter.

Petroleum Stock—Pit Hole Creek, $2.50 Shade River, 25. Money Stocks—American Flag, 3.90; Borrongina Gold, 1.15; Crozier, 1.90 Colodonia, 1.60; Corryville, 1.80; Dean Invalid, 1.35; Grunnell Gold, 1.30; Keystone, 1.12; Lacrosse Gold, 2.90; Liberty Belt, 75; New York, 2.55; Kipp & Buell, 1.20; Oak Hill 55; Quartz Hill, 65; Smith & Parish, 1.80; Canadian, 95; Excelsior Gomper, 1.75; Hudson Copper, 1.00

The Post's money article says: The dullness of general business has produced the effect of stimulating the speculative manifestations of stock in Wall street. The Loan market is extremely easy, and the rates tend to favor the borrower. The Gold market is very active and buoyant, and the general speculative movement, which has been evidently preparing for some time past, appears to be commencing. Governments are strong, the Sixes of 1868 have risen to 106, on an unfounded report that the Government is buying them up; Ten-Fortios are active, and have sold up to 95¾; Seven-Thirties hover at 106. Railroad State stocks are firm. Railroad shares are extremely active, with a strong upward tendency. Northwestern shares considerably irregular, Chicago & New York Central, Erie, New York, Ontario and Rending are, according to report, under the special care of cliques of speculators for the present. Following are quotations: New York Central, 113; Erie, 78¾; Hudson, 124½; Reading, 118¾. Foreign Exchange is firm, without much activity. Bills at sixty days on London and Paris, 108@108¼; for Commercial, 108@108¾; for Bankers' do, at short sight, 109@109¾.

At the four o'clock open Board the following were the principal sales: Pacific Mail, 89; Ohio & Mississippi, 22¾; Spruce Hill, 4¾; Boston Water Power, 23¾; Rut Mar. 8½, 8¾; Cumberland Coal, 35¾; Quicksilver, 35¾; Maripose Mining Company, 32¾; Western Union Telegraph, 85¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 39; Erie, 79¾; New York Central, 114¾; Reading, 118¾; Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana, 75¾; Illinois Central, 122¾; Cleveland & Toledo, 129¾; Chicago, Rock Island & Prairie du Chien, 97¾; Chicago & Northwestern, 37¾; do preferred, 73¾.

H. O. and $12.90@14 for trade and family brands, including Ohio firms and more active sales in bond, $2.40@2.42 for new, and $2.45 for old. Wheat—receipts of 26,271 bush, and dull and without material change; sales of 5,000 bush old Milwaukee club at $2.37 for new No. 1 Chicago, and $2.05@2.07 for white Michigan. ## RIVER NEWS.

The river commenced to recede about noon yesterday, and last evening it was still receding slowly, with scant ten feet in the channel—the Allegheny marks showed eleven feet. At Oil City it is reported there were six feet in the Allegheny at that point yesterday. The weather continues clear and pleasant and apparently settled.

The Leni Leoti arrived and cleared for Parkersburg. She was considerably behind time, having been delayed by the fog. The Argonaut No. 2 left for St. Louis last evening, with a fair trip, and we understand that she received the most of her freight from her owners; otherwise, she would not have got a trip for some time, as she was not in turn.

The Robert Moore, the new Pittsburgh and Portsmouth packet, arrived yesterday, and will return again to-day. The Urilda came in from Oil City, with a fair trip.

The Bertha and R. C. Gray are enroute from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh, and the last named will doubtless be found at the wharf this morning. The Minnie and Glasgow were loading at Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Wednesday.

The and commodious side-wheel steamer, Quickstep, in command of Capt. Donaldson, with Sam. Barr jr., in the office, leaves to-day without fail for Cincinnati, and every Saturday thereafter, until further notice. This fine steamer is admirably adapted as a packet between here and Cincinnati, and we hope she will receive as she deserves, a good trip. Passengers and shippers will bear in mind that this boat will leave promptly as advertised.

The Belle Vernon, Capt. Darragh, with Mr. Wm. Blackstock in the office, is filling up rapidly for St. Louis, and will leave to-day without fail. She has superior accommodations for passengers, and plenty of room for freight.

The Importer, Capt. Noss, and the Ezra Porter, Capt. Porter, are both filling up slowly but steadily for New Orleans, and will soon be ready to take their departures.

Up to Tuesday evening, the following towboats had arrived at Louisville: Hawk, Petrel, J. S. Neal, Wilson, Dart, Wild Cat, Stella, Lake Erie, Sam. Roberts, Tom Rees, Hercules, Star, N. J. Bigley, The Lake Erie and Star, de-scended the falls, the former for Memphis, and the latter for New Orleans.

Trade and river commerce at St. Louis is at a dead stand, as will be seen by the following summary of boats laid up that port. The most of incoming have the elevator, and the list is too long for publication. The Republican thus sums up the situation:

"Bloody Island are the Wanetta, Camelia, Talisman, Henry Lee, Rubicon, F. W. Stratker, G. W. Graham; City of Alton, Submarine No. 14—in all 107 steamboats, embracing boats of all sizes, shapes and descriptions, from the floating palace Rath to the nondescript sand-boat Belle Isle."

SOLD.—It is no use in talking, Cincinnati must have money, while Louisville is ready. In other words, there are men in Cincinnati who do a big business while men here are thinking about it. We hinted some time ago that the Cincinnati and Kentucky River Packet Company had purchased the Blue Wing at New Orleans, and that she was on her way up to run in the trade. On Saturday the same company purchased the Wave, now lying at Jeffersonville for $25,000. She will be put in the trade with the Blue Wing. Now Louisville ought to go to work and abuse Cincinnati—like she often does—for enterprise.—Louisville Democrat.

The Yorktown and Kate Putnam are loading at St. Louis for Pittsburgh. We clip the following from the St. Louis Democrat of Thursday:

A dense fog prevailed on the river yesterday morning, detaining, perhaps a good spell of fine weather. During its prevalence, at half past seven o'clock, the ferryboat Cahokia ran into the steamer America, lying at the bank, and broke the latter's wheel, badly knocked one its sail to pieces and injured the other. The America would have been sunk had the colliding boat struck four feet further forward. Damage and detention about $400. Capt. Golding was determined to get away last night. He was greatly encouraged by the receipt of a telegram that he did not want to leave until the forenoon.

The St. Louis Dispatch of Wednesday says:

The Luella, from Fort Benton, is expected here the latter part of this week with a million and a half of gold. Our share of it is for sale on time.

The J. E. GILMORE.—Capt. R. S. Yerkes arrived from the wreck of the Gilmore yesterday, and reports her lying in twenty-five feet water, and the river rising. The flood carried away her cabin hatches and her upper works. Her hull is considered safely, but is not worth raising. The furniture of the boat was saved, also some $30,000 of her freight. About half of the freight on her main deck and all on the upper deck and roof was saved by the Louisville, and is now in charge of Capt. Palmer, agent at Cairo for the underwriters at this place.—[Cincinnati paper.
